

Perhaps the FCC should become more concerned with these huge media giants that they helped create and there ability to control the public airways through the FCC and stop trying to limit services provided by new media avenues. Allow XM to continue to broadcast local traffic & weather. Stop Oprah from broadcasting indecent material on TV. Stop Michael Powell and the other FCC Commissioners from accepting free gifts from special interest groups.

Thank you,

Jack DeSantis